Dedicated to Cure, Committed to Care

Privacy

1. Privacy Policy

1.1 Purpose

Raah to Cure Foundation Trust ("the Trust") is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of all individuals associated with its activities – including beneficiaries, donors, volunteers, employees, and partners.

1.2 Scope

This policy applies to all personal information collected, stored, processed, or shared by the Trust in any form, whether digital or physical.

1.3 Policy Statement

- The Trust collects only necessary personal data required for program implementation, communication, and reporting.
- All personal information is used solely for lawful purposes related to the objectives of the Trust.
- Personal data shall not be sold, shared, or disclosed to unauthorized parties.
- Access to personal data is restricted to authorized personnel only.
- The Trust ensures secure data storage and disposal methods.

1.4 Data Collection & Use

Information such as name, contact details, and demographic information may be collected for program registration, donor communication, or volunteer coordination.

1.5 Consent

The Trust obtains informed consent from individuals before collecting or using their personal information.

1.6 Retention & Disposal

Data is retained only for as long as necessary and securely deleted when no longer required.

1.7 Review

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Trust's governing body.
